

WHO DO YOU THINK YOU ARE?

Friday 26th February 2010 3 Days £179

Tinker, tailor, soldier, sailor... thief?

Have you ever wondered what secrets lurk in your family's past? Have you ever thought that you might be related to a celebrity or even royalty? Or do you just want to know more about your family? Who Do You Think You Are? LIVE, sponsored by Ancestry.co.uk, is a live event where you can do all this and more.

And as a special treat, family history enthusiast Tony Robinson will be appearing on Friday 26th February courtesy of Ancestry.co.uk to give his unique and inimitable take on history - don't miss this opportunity to see one of the nation's favourite personalities!

Whether you are just starting out on your journey of discovery, or are a seasoned researcher, Who Do You Think You Are? LIVE has something for everyone to enjoy, and a wealth of expertise to tap into. Nowhere else can you meet the celebrities from the television show and hear their stories told live on stage, as well as all the backstage gossip from the making of the programme.

Not only this, but the Society of Genealogists Family History Show, sponsored by TheGenealogist.co.uk, will once more feature at the event. Featuring family history societies from all over the country, this collection of specialist and localised knowledge and expertise is now going into its 18th year and is the ideal place to find the answers to all your questions, and the products and information to help you discover your story.

The Society of Genealogists Workshop Programme will also once more be a major feature of the event. With over 100 workshops and seminars on a range of subjects, this is a feature that no family historian can afford to miss.

With around 200 exhibitors perfectly placed to help you further your research, and even the chance to have a one-to-one session with an experienced genealogist, Who do You Think You Are? LIVE has everything under one roof.

THE WORKSHOP PROGRAMME is always a highlight of the event, with over 100 workshops on a variety of topics from getting started to documenting and recording your research – whatever stage of your research you have reached, there will be something to suit you.

If you are just starting out researching your family history, look out for our special workshops detailing the best places to find basic resources, what records are out there for you to use and how to make your first steps along your journey! For those of you that are a bit further down the line, there will be workshops covering what to do when you have hit a brick wall, parish records and sessions specific to dedicated topics such as Irish Ancestry or Your Jewish Roots.

The more advanced genealogist can be satisfied with a range of workshops to help with those more difficult topics, such as ancestors from medieval periods and legal documents. The workshop timetable will be available to view closer to the event - keep checking the website, or why not sign up to the newsletter for regular updates on all the latest show information.
